

The focus of this review is California. Over the history of the NFIP, California has been a donor state, contributing hundreds of $millions more in flood insurance premiums than it has received in claims (California Water Blog 12/14/2016). Under Risk Rating 2.0, 73.2% of California NFIP policyholders will see premiums increase, and 26.8% will see decreases.